Netflix launches in Cuba

The movie and TV streaming service Netflix Inc. started broadcasting in Cuba. The decision comes after the recent change in the relations between the US and Cuba.

Cubans will have to pay $7.99 per month in order to access the service. Cuba is one of the countries with the lowest number of Internet users in the world: only 5% of the population has Internet access. The use of both broadband connection and Wi-Fi is very limited.

Netflix said that Cubans will be able to watch a wide range of TV shows including such shows as "House of Cards" or "Orange is the News Black".

The American company has announced it wants to reach 200 countries in the next two years.
